INTRODUCTION: The original yard was built in the 1870s by Prince Soltykoff as part of his Kremlin Stud, and became a training yard when leased by Luca Cumani. Kremlin Cottage has an enviable record with winners at group and listed level, including Derby Winners. Hugo Palmer made considerable additions to combine all the charm of a Victorian yard with the functionality of modern barns and every technical facility. In recent seasons Kremlin Cottage was leased to James Ferguson and then to Alice Haynes.

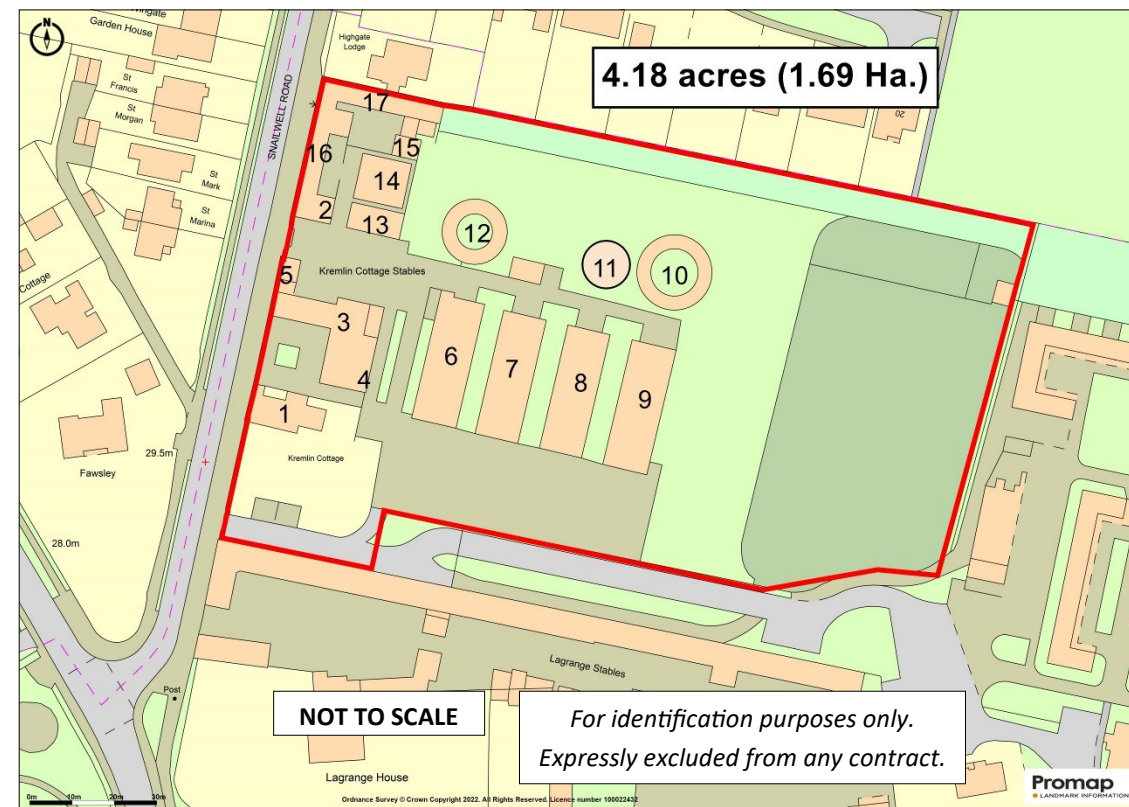

SITUATION: Kremlin Cottage Stables is only 500 metres to the Severals via the Fordham Road horsewalk, and a short walk on to Warren Hill. Newmarket is a renowned training centre with good reason - 2,500 acres of fantastic gallops managed by The Jockey Club Estates, providing some of the best public training facilities anywhere. Vets are on hand, and the town is geared to support the racehorse. The 2 racecourses and the Tattersalls sales complex make Newmarket the international hub of horseracing.
